<Story>

This is a musical for the Environment ESD

Love is the root of everything. Family, children, villages, cities, and countries, love made all of those. But when was it that we started to destroy everything with quarrels, conflicts and wars. Weren't love the beginning?? Humans would have an Angel in their own mind with a Devil behind together. Each of three guys in this story grew up in poverty and long lived with their incubuses as an immigrant and as a soldier. But now, they thrived as the world is already in their hands. They gathered famous celebrities, academic experts and intellectuals of the world and hosted the international environment conference on the next step to success.

Is the way going to lead a sustainable future of our beautiful blue planet Earth??
